NEWSLETTER

It is vital that all our children are safe when arriving and leaving our school. Please respect all parking signs and road rules.

From the desk of the Principal

SchoolAid is the hub of kids helping kids and as a national social venture our purpose is simple: to instill in children the values of care, kindness and compassionate action so that our future generations are resilient, outward looking, optimistic, community-minded, and philanthropic global citizens. SchoolAid has officially launched the Nepal Earthquake Emergency Appeal, to rally the 7,000 primary schools across Australia to unite to make a difference to the lives of children in Nepal, and support their recovery from such massive devastation. This kind of loss is beyond our imagination. But we can help. If every school raised just $100 in donations, we would have around $1 million to empower grassroots projects that support Nepalese kids caught up in this devastating crisis.

A note about notes.
- Absence notes – please ensure that a note explaining your child’s absence is sent in to school office as soon as possible once your child returns.
- Blinman Oval notes – The athletics carnival is coming up and really would appreciate all notes returned.
- Please ensure all permission notes and money are sent to the office first thing in the morning by the due date. Please remember that is difficult for us to provide change so we would appreciate the correct money.
- A copy of all notes will be placed on the school website.

Debating News

Last week our two debating teams competed in their first debates against Green Valley Public School and Greenway Park Public School. This time the Gems and Golds lost against their opposing teams. They have learned a lot from this experience and brought back advise and feedback given by the adjudicators. Each Monday the students gather to practise their debating skills and their commitment and enthusiasm is applauded. This week the Glenwood Gems and Glenwood Golds debate one another.

Review of Special Religious Education and Special Education in Ethics in NSW government schools

The NSW Department of Education and Communities has commissioned an independent review of the implementation of Special Religious Education (SRE) and Special Education in Ethics (SEE) in NSW public schools.

The review is being conducted by an independent research company, ARTD Consultants. This company provides services in evaluating public policy. The review will inform ongoing improvement of SRE and SEE for the Department and providers.

How can you participate in the review?

You can complete a survey up until 31 July 2015 via an online portal, located at this link: http://forms.artd.com.au/s3/Online-contribution-for-parents-carers
The survey is in English and has 19 questions. For most questions you can select an answer from the multiple choice options provided. Only two questions ask for written answers. Extra written feedback for another five questions may be provided if desired but is not essential.

Queries or complaints about the way the review is conducted

For questions or concerns associated with participation in the review or to raise a complaint about the conduct of the review, please contact the Leader, Quality Assurance, on (02) 9244 5025 or by email at SRE-SEE-Review@det.nsw.edu.au. All complaints will be treated confidentially.

Office News

Don’t forget that payments can be made through EFTPOS in the office. Late payments will not be accepted on the morning of events such as Gala day.

Stage 2 Camp News

Stage 2 camp to Wedderburn is fast approaching. Students will be attending camp on Wednesday 17th June and Thursday 18th June. Final payments are required at the office by Tuesday 9th June.
